“ My earliest memory of Uncle KC was when he came to live with us in the early 1960s. We were a close family back then and held frequent gatherings that included baseball games. I keenly remember the amazement of watching him hitting home runs over houses located more than a block away and making leaping catches in the field. He was a kind and caring soul who never lifted a hand against anyone nor was there a hand lifted against him. We traveled throughout Alabama, North Carolina, and Georgia almost every year and visited his numerous family members and friends. He maintained a sturdy garden, and hosted, along with his wife, several cookouts that were full of meats, fruit and veggies from his garden, and a lot of fun. I got to know him very well during my interactions with him and as we travelled down the road together we would listen to the Blues and Gospel music. But I never knew the extent of others' love for him until I used his phone to inform his contacts that he had passed. I was touched by the responses of grown men crying and the shocked reactions of others during our grief-stricken conversations. Their testimonies were indicative of their love for him as they shared memories of their connectivity with him. I loved my uncle and am surely going to miss him. It was unfortunate that our last ride together was in an ambulance to Hartford Hospital. I'm consoled by the fact that he's got his wings while surrounded by his family and friends as he passed into eternity in a peaceful manner. May God bless him as He welcomes him into His kingdom.

“ Turn the page, my memories are there.
KC Hall, my classmate, rode my daddy's bus to school. He was a very likable person who was friendly and always shared a good laugh. We talked briefly at school reunions. His close school friends kept me up-to-date.
He will be missed!

“ Precious Memories! Oh how they linger! Nothing but love! No more can be said of a man who which his little smile and even less words to say, can fill your heart with radiant love and aspiration. You will be missed here on earth but the Angels in heaven are singing with joy. I love you uncle KC.
