

Tyrone Forbes

February 21, 1959 - July 2, 2020

Tyrone Forbes, 61, of Danbury, CT formerly of New Haven, CT passed away suddenly on July 2, 2020. Tyrone was born in New Haven, CT on February 21, 1959 to the late Arthur Lee and Mary Jane Forbes Jr. Tyrone grew up in the Westville area of New Haven, CT where he attended the Public School System including James Hillhouse High School.

After high school Tyrone enlisted into the United States Armed Forces. Tyrone was always a leader. As a leader, he worked many years in Management for McDonald's. He also worked for Clark Cleaning Services and continued in the fast food industry until his health challenges prevented him from working.

Tyrone was a jokester, a prankster and always found a way to keep you laughing. Tyrone also enjoyed television and good soul and gospel music. He especially enjoyed watching his favorite artists, Shirley Caesar and the late Aretha Franklin performing on t.v. His favorite part would always be when they would take the people to "church." He enjoyed family gatherings and Sunday dinners. Tyrone loved food, not just any food, but it had to be GOOD food.

Tyrone leaves to cherish his memories, his sister, Monica Forbes; an aunt Evangeline McClain, an uncle Designated Bishop Jesse F. Carney, Sr., a host of cousins including Brenda Henley, who he called his sister, and Lester Barrett Jr., who he referred to as his brother; He also leaves to cherish, Laura (Omar) Wilson who was like a daughter to him and her son Dominic Hernandez. Tyrone will be missed by many but the memories that he leaves will live forever in our hearts.

Cemetery

Private

CT,

Comments

“ I wrote a detailed memory of my great friend mister forbes. Plus, my name is dj darryl eclipsrscsnyk. They keep leaving out the main part of my name. Darryl.

DJ Darryl Eclipsrscsnyk - October 14, 2020 at 05:49 PM

“ DJ Darryl Eclipsrscsnyk lit a candle in memory of Tyrone Forbes

DJ Darryl Eclipsrscsnyk - October 14, 2020 at 05:47 PM

“ Tyrone was one of a kind. He could keep you laughing. There wasn't a dull moment when Tyrone was around. He will be missed! My Condolences to Monica, Brenda and the entire Family.
Evangelist Sandra Willis

Sandra Willis - July 15, 2020 at 09:08 AM

“ Sandra Willis lit a candle in memory of Tyrone Forbes

Sandra Willis - July 15, 2020 at 09:02 AM

“ Tyrone Forbes was my Gay Mother. Aka Koochie. Showed and taught me so much about life. I could never forget him. Took me on my first outings and forays into manhattan. Times Square New Years Eve. Tads steak house. Never will forget it. Introduced me to the legendary club Better Days, new york city with legendary dj t Scott. Forget paris is burning. Tyrone was my paris is burning. My rock. My teacher, my inspiration, my mother, my father, my brother, and my sister. He was everything. Gave the best advice about life to me. Going Rolling skating at midnights. He loved him some Aretha Franklin. Get it right. Aretha Franklin on piano. I could on and on and on. He enlightened me to her. Tyrone is the reason why I live. Gave me strength. Still does. His spirit will live on thru me. Because he taught me much.

Riding around in his silver Cadillac. Red interior. Was like riding around in a boat. How excited he was when aretha went punk rock. Her new hairstyle. Lol. Pink Cadillac was his song by aretha, too. He loved everything she sang. Breakfasts. He would order 3/99 cent breakfasts at one time. Kind of sad I am just finding this out, today. Funny, I have this big can of cornbeef hash. I remember that, too. Tyrone. I love you. May you rest in power. I can't say it enough. Thank you. You are monumental in my life. I would say you are number one in my book.

With sadness, dj darryl eclipsrscnyc

(I have my memories at least.)

DJ Darryl Eclipsrscnyc - October 14, 2020 at 05:43 PM