*My dear brother,
For over twenty five years we were connected by way of my being your “caretaker and caregiver” when possible. Many times in life we don’t understand the, “why’s”. But one thing I do know now that you have left so many, you were loved and are deeply missed. Did I really thought I was your mother, no. I just did what our mother would have wanted us all to do for each other and that is to love and help in time of need no matter what. “That was her testimony in life”, as a servant of the Lord. Addison I am glad you are resting in peace now. No more suffering and I will say this, you fought a good fight”. Do want all to know though, that I love and miss you like a son. (Forever)*
