

Alex White Sr.

June 15, 1965 - October 25, 2023

Alex White Sr. was born to the late Ernest White and Maggie Holley White on June 15, 1965 in Bertie County, North Carolina. He departed this life on Wednesday, October 25, 2023.

At an early age, Alex joined the Ashland Missionary Baptist Church in Merry Hill, North Carolina. He was educated in the Bertie County Public School system where he graduated.

Alex was affectionately known as “Big Alex” “Meat Man” and “Big Country”, just to name a few. He was well-known in North Carolina and throughout Connecticut. Everyone raved about his southern cooking, especially his fried pork chops. More importantly, he visited his aunts, uncles, and other people in many communities where he had a variety of conversations or lended a helping hand. Also, he enjoyed watching soap opera, crime shows, the Los Angeles Lakers, and YouTube videos.

Alex leaves to cherish his memories two daughters: Tailonia Bell and Tacorra Bell, both of Middletown, CT; three sons: Alex White Jr., Andrew White, and Andre’ White as well as their mother Stephanie Perry, all of Middletown, CT; four grandchildren: Carter, Kendall, Chloe, and Callie; five siblings: Mary White of Baltimore, MD; Willie Ray White of Colerain, NC; Patricia White Griffin (Frankie) of Williamston, NC; Linette White Gaunchaux (Anthony); and Jeanette Blackwell (Marcus), both of Middletown, CT; two aunts: Lillie Mae Mebane and Louvenia Holley; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his brothers: Ernest Andrew White and Calvin White.

“ I'm going to miss you. I will miss our talks, about the good old days when we would walk the road of Perrytown to White Cross. Alex always was full of laughter and jokes. There wasn't a dull moment when he was around. Rest My Cousin. I'm going to miss you.
