

Alexandria Alexis Shakespaere

November 10, 1988 - August 28, 2021

God decided to call his beautiful angel home.

Alexandria Shakespeare affectionately known by her family and friends as “Lex, Lexi, or Alexis” was born on November 10, 1988 in New Haven, Connecticut. She graduated from East Rock Magnet School and attended High School in the Community. She was the daughter of Aretha Clarke and Hansel Allison. She entered into eternal rest on August 28, 2021. The family is deeply saddened by her sudden death.

Alexandria was a sweet kind soul whose sole purpose was being a great mother to her two loving daughters, Charlesé Clarke and Liyah Curry. Charlesé shares the following, 'My mom liked to bake, she liked to clean, and she liked to get her nails done. My mom liked writing in her journal and sitting by the water to think about everything. My mom liked walking in the rain with her flip flops and taking long walks anywhere. She liked watching reality tv shows and movies.'

Everyone who knew Alexandria knew you would always catch Alexandria smiling or trying to make others smile. She loved helping others and most of all she loved her family and always wanted them close to her. All who met Alexandria fell in love with her!

Besides her parents, Alexandria leaves to cherish her memories, her daughters; Charlesé Clarke and Liyah Curry of New Haven, Connecticut. Siblings; Brenda Kellyman, Destiny Nicholson, Tatyana Lathrop, Kaiden Clarke, and Daequan Nicholson all of New Haven, Connecticut. Alexandria also has three other siblings Davon, George, and Nahesha Allison who resides outside of Connecticut. Her dear grandmother Clara and Rupercia. Three nieces and one nephew who were dear to her heart; Lamaiya Bulls, Brylee Lathrop, Nova Nicholson, and Carter Nicholson all of New Haven, Connecticut. Alexandria has host of aunts, uncles, and cousins residing in Connecticut, Florida, and in the South. She also has many friends in the New Haven area who she was very close with and confided in. In addition to her family, she was predeceased by her baby brother Jeremiah and baby sister Jamyah. Alexandria was loved by many! We will miss that contagious smile that she wore and she will be truly missed by everyone.

“ I'm so hurt an I'll never be the same. I love you so much it's like we were soulmates we were just alike look alike everything. You got my corny jokes an I got yours. you wasn't only my big sis you were also one of my best friends.. I literally told you everything and vise versa even down to a pimple we might've gotten lol we couldn't stand getting those lol I'm really gonna miss our hour conversations and our morning walks. Yo without you I'm not the same person you took a piece of me with you but I will do everything you wanted for me. Thank God you even got to be apart of my life for 28 years. I'll make sure my nieces are good fr I got you sis please watch over us. I'll go on trying to be strong and keeping God while begging for the strength that I need to go on. Rest peacefully beautiful I love you forever. 💕💕💕💕💕💕💕💕

“ Alexis, even before I met you I knew you would capture a piece of my heart that nothing or no one else could fill. You were the infant who crawled into the bathroom (as I never really closed the door fully) as I showered. You would patiently sit on the bath mat and wait until I dried myself then raised your arms for me to pick you up and hug you. You were the adolescent who would forget her pajamas when you slept over just so you could "borrow" one of my oversized tee shirts to sleep in. You were the teenager who insisted on staying with me after I was hospitalized just so you could make me cups of tea and take care of me. You were the one who laughed at my jokes and tell me "Auntie Val, you're silly." But you never stopped laughing. You had that gift of laughter that brightened the countenance of even the most dour of personalities. You cared about making others feel good. You had the heart and personality of one's concept of an angel. For too short a time God "loaned" you to us, but I'm so grateful that he loved us enough to place you in our lives to enrich us with your love and presence. Thank you for having been the most precious of God's gift of love. Your earthly body is the only part that will no longer be with us, as your memory will live on in my heart and in the lives and hearts of others. Forever and always, my precious angel of a niece, you're loved.

To Aretha, Hansel, Ms. Henry, Mom (Grandma Lawrence), Nahesha, Brenda, George, Kaiden, Destiny, others and especially Charlese & your beautiful baby girl, please know God has a purpose for taking Alexis home. Ours is not to question, but to accept God's plan for calling Alexis to her heavenly home with him. Remember Alexis with love as she was love.

“ Alexis, I write this tribute to you from within The Depths of Sorrow. I keep asking myself why? Who did this? Then reality steps in and the answer becomes clear- my questions don't matter. The only thing that matters is; you are now in a better place- free from all Earthly pain and sorrow. And although I am grief stricken; I am comforted to know you are safe at last. Safe, forevermore! Aunt Pat, will never say goodbye but instead, will only say "Alexis, I'll see you one bright day".

To Aretha, Hansel, Mrs Henry, Mrs Lawrence, Nahesha, Brenda, Destiny(Maureen) Kaiden and George, be encouraged because Alexis's Life, was never in vain.

To the rest of the family- be strong! One Love!
