“ Alexia words cannot express how much i miss you and think about you everyday. I remember how close we used to be and how you use to always be there for me. I wish sometimes that i could still speak to you everyday and have someone like you to laugh and have a good time with. You were like my sister and i miss you dearly. It just doesn't feel real to me that your gone and sometimes i feel that you are still here with me in spirit. Sometimes i dream about you and when i wake up you're not there it hurts me so bad. I miss and love you so much Alexia.

“ Alexia was my only sister. I still can't believe that she is no longer with us. There isn't a day that goes by where I don't think about her. She was the one in the family out of my brothers and myself that kept peace and always mad me laugh. We were very competitive when it came to video games. I miss all the good memories that we had but, will never forget them. I will always think about my little sister. She was so well liked by all my friends and I say wanna say thank you to everyone that came to the funeral and who supported us in that hard time. I love you Lexi. Everything I do that is positive in my life, I do it for you.

Rest in Peace Little sister, your in a better place.

Love always,

Big Brother

“ Good Bye For Now

*You were a gift from God Loved by many You'll never be forgotten
In our hearts you'll always stay
You touched the lives of so many people
Tears flow and cries are heard
You were such a happy and loving spirit
I guess it was your time to go Suffering and pain you went threw
You won't have to go threw no more We'll see you in heaven someday
So Good Bye For Now, Alexia.*

“ She's Not Lost...

*She's not lost.
God gave her a smile and took her hand and welcomed her
to a familiar land.
And its much more warm and fair
than the last time
she lingered there.
And though for her familiar voice, you yearn, and every day, you wish
for her return,
she is home at last,
comforted by the love,
of every angel
in heaven above.
She sheds no tears
for the path she trod;
for she has found
everlasting warmth, beauty, and comfort in the hand of God.

“ To Alexia's family: There are no words that a person can say to you to make things better. In time you will start remembering all of the memories that Alexia has given to you. At that time you will then be able to smile. I remember seeing Alexia grow up into a beautiful respectful young lady. She was always smiling and joking. Always ready to sit you down and do your hair or just sit on the front porch to watch everyone outside in the neighborhood. You have raised a wonderful child. You should be very proud. Alexia is in heaven safe from the world and she is free from pain. She will always, always, be remembered in our hearts. Again, our thought and prayers are with you at this difficult time.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. I pray that the physical bond shared between you & Alexia be openly exchanged to a spiritual bond. Your "cherished" memories will leave you with a happy feeling in knowing that your daughter is still with you always. Asking God to keep you and the family in His care.

“ To Alexia's family I was very sorry to hear about the passing of Alexia. She had a beautiful personality and I enjoyed being around her. I loved it when she came down the hallway and she would say "the princess is coming, the princess is coming" and as she would come down the hallway she would wave like a princess. She has truly touch my heart more than words can say. I will miss her very much especially when she called me mommy Georgetta. God Bless from Georgetta Spell 7-2 School Age Yale New Haven Hospital.

“ To Glo and the entire family,

Alexia was like one of my own daughters outside of TaMesha. Always respectful when she was at the house and always helped me with the daycare children along with TaMesha.

You know that you are family to me and I am here for you even after the service is over. The last time I seen Lexia was at work (Targets) and she had that pretty smile on her face and that's the way I will remember her smiling.

I pray that the Peace of God will continue to be in your hearts and know that earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not and will not hill.

Love you always!

“ Walter Jr. & Family:

I didn't know what Alexia, but I do know Walter. We grew up together in Meadowbrook some years ago. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family Walter. I haven't seen you in a long time, but I can sympanize with how you may be feeling. I beat your sister was a wonderful and fun person to be around. Just know that God works in mysterious ways, and if you step out on faith he will ensure that everything will be fine for you and your family. God called Alexia peaceful home for reasons we may not understand. Don't look at this as goodbye, but as a new beginning. God had ensured me that Alexia is resting peacefully and happily and that she doesn't want you nor anyone else to be sad, but to be proud of her and dwell on the great memories of her.
