

Alforde Green

January 25, 1959 - May 30, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the sudden passing of Alforde Marshall Green, affectionately known as “Geebie,” who departed this life on May 30, 2025, at the age of 66 in New Haven, Connecticut.

Alforde was born on January 25, 1959, in Norfolk, Virginia, to the union of Rufus Marshall Hall and Clara Mae Green. Around the age of 12, Alforde and his family relocated to New Haven, Connecticut, which would become his lifelong home.

He attended Lee High School and later worked briefly at HB Ives. Alforde was also a dedicated volunteer at CSK, a role he cherished deeply.

Known for his vibrant personality and infectious laughter, Alforde was a beloved figure in the Hill community. His favorite pastime was spending time on the bridge in the Hill, surrounded by the friends and family he loved. Alforde was truly the life of the party—he loved to dance, joke, and brighten the lives of those around him. No matter the day, “Geebie” had a way of lifting spirits and bringing joy.

He was a man who lived life with passion, humor, and heart. Loved by all who knew him, his memory will forever remain in the hearts of his family, friends, and the community.

Alforde leaves to cherish his memory his beloved daughters, Shamita Simone Hunter and Shylina Shiekell Hunter (Vanessa Hunter); sons, Rufus Lamont

Hunter and Rontae Jerrale Hunter; and his son-nephew, Anthony Hall “Teddy.”

He is also survived by his devoted brothers, Stanley Hall (Julia Hall) and Preston Hall (Alma Hall); and loving sisters, Goldie Hall (Willie Toney), Viola Williams (Robert Williams), Hannah Ward (Edward Ward), and Queenie Jackson (James Jackson).

He was a proud grandfather to 22 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren, and is fondly remembered by a host of nieces, nephews, extended relatives, and cherished friends.

He was preceded in death by his son Alforde Marshall Hunter “Chinaman”; father, Rufus Marshall Hall; mother, Clara Mae Green; brothers, Rufus Hall Jr. and Lil Bruh; and sisters, Helen Hall, Adgielina Smallwood, and Zemora Hall.
