

Allegerria Fitzpatrick

June 18, 1965 - July 18, 2016

Allegerria Fitzpatrick, 51 of Bridgeport, Connecticut passed away on July 18, 2016 at Bridgeport Hospital. She was the daughter of Nadine Fulwood Fitzpatrick and the late Joseph Fitzpatrick. Born on June 18, 1965 in New Haven, CT.

Affectionately known as "Leggs" and "Legra" to her vast circle of friends, she attended the public school system of New Haven and graduated Wilbur Cross High School in 1983. Her journey in life involved many professions and paths but in recent years, Allegerria became a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) through Goodwin College and Stone Academy. She served a variety of private sector employers as a workplace wellness professional for Viverae Health Agency.

Her social circles involved many friends and acquaintances through the Connecticut Small Game Club and various branches of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW). Her favorite interests involved enjoying live music of many genres, travelling to other cities, and spending quality time her sons.

To carry on in her spirit and memory, Allegerria shares with the world four sons: Joseph Vincent Fitzpatrick Beady of West Haven, CT; Craig Vernon Fitzpatrick of Seattle, Washington; Avery Fitzpatrick of Milford, CT; and Malcolm Fitzpatrick of Fairfield, CT. She shares two brothers and a sister:

Kelvan Fitzpatrick of New Haven, CT; Garfield Fitzpatrick of Chesire, CT; and Jodene Fitzpatrick of Balitmore, Maryland. She also leaves a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family throughout Connecticut and the southern states. Allegerria is predeceased by her grandmother Estelle Fulwood.
