“ Alphonso was such a beautiful force. A young man who truly loved the Lord and shared this love to others, even little children. His smile was so lovely with those deep dimples and handsome face. Alphonso was admired by coworkers, friends and family. He was always trying to take the feelings of others into consideration and would advocate for those he felt were treated unfairly and unjust. He became the leader of coworkers of his last job trying hard to get fair conditions for fellow workers to make everybody's life better. He loved his son Alphonso, Jr. and had begun having those "father-son" talks and his precious Atavia was the "apple of his eye" and his favorite "girl". His aunties loved him for his genuine love, kindness and respect that he always displayed toward elders. He was so gentle, and thoughtful and helpful to any one his senior. Today is thirteen years, since his passing and not a day goes by that he isn't missed or cherish. God knew best and loved him best. We trust in the Lord. May our dear Alphonso rest in the presence of the Almighty God. Aunt Judy
