

Angela Nelson

March 13, 1958 - July 29, 2017

Angela Sayles-Nelson, 59 of New Haven, passed away on July 29, 2017 after a long illness at The Connecticut Hospice in Branford. She was the beloved wife of James E. Nelson for 29 years. Mrs. Nelson was born in New London, CT on March 13, 1958 to the late Lucille Sayles-Conner and Sinclair Conner. She was a graduate of West Haven High School in 1976. She later attended South Central Community College now known as Gateway Community College. Ultimately, she graduated from Stone Academy and became a medical assistant at The Hospital of St. Raphael. She was a faithful prophet, deaconess, and youth leader at Kingdom Love Center Ministries. She had a passion for sewing and crafts.

Besides her husband, Angela leaves to cherish her memory, her children: Jaleem Sayles Sr. and Jameka Sayles, and her only grandchild, Jaleem Sayles Jr. all of New Haven. She also leaves her sisters: Gail Robinson (the late Floyd) of Leland, North Carolina, Nadine Garnett of West Haven, and Dawn Conner of New Haven. She also leaves her brothers James Sayles, Joseph Conner, and Timothy Jones all of New Haven as well as a host of family and friends.

“ A month or so ago, God in His wisdom, placed this very special lady in our moms (Lou) life. In this short time, she filled all of our hearts with love and touched us like no other. Angela, we are honored and humbled to have known you. Thank you for sharing your beautiful heart with us and making a difference in our lives. May you find peace in God's loving hands. To James and Family, our deepest sympathy. Lou (Louise), Gina and Angela

“ My aunt and uncle , the late Andrew and Nettie Reed , the parents who raised Angie , were very proud and very happy to be a central and influential part of her life . The love and foundation they set undoubtedly guided Angie along the path to become the outstanding and beloved woman she is today . The Wright Family will forever be thankful for the cherished family unity , love and good times we shared with Angie from childhood to adulthood . Peace and love to you all .
