“ Although "Nita" as we called her will physically be away from us, she will always be with us from all the memories that she leaves behind. She was my eldest sister and I loved her dearly. Right now it hurts, but time heals all and I know that I/we will make it through this tough time. Dianna, for you being my youngest sister, I am very proud of how you handled and organized everything that took place for Nita. You have a right to be proud and well comforted. I know Nita is looking down and say, "Huh...they really did love me"...and guess what....WE DID!!!!

*Thanks for everything

My prayers are with you and your family. God has promised us that weeping will only endure for a night, BUT joy cometh in the morning. Allow God to comfort and love you.
