

Annie M. Hall

March 10, 1924 - February 22, 2018

On Thursday February 22, 2018 at Yale New Haven Hospital in New Haven, CT, God called his angel home.

Mrs. Annie Mae Hall (Gattison) was born March 10, 1924 in Darlington County. She was the loving daughter of the late George and Oneatha Ketter-Gattison. She was educated in the public schools of Darlington County. Annie Mae Hall grew up in a Christian home where much emphasis was placed on "living for Jesus." Because of the religious training in the home, she was converted and joined the group of believers at Mount Bethel Missionary Baptist Church New Haven, CT.

Annie Mae Hall was respected by many because she was warm, giving, respectful, kind, spontaneous, with life joy, always with a smile and an amazing wife.

Annie Mae Hall lived in New Haven, CT, where she was a hard worker and good provider. She was a nurse's aide and home maker. While working she was considered a dedicated and valued employee.

Mrs. Annie Hall will be missed by all who knew and loved her. Those surviving to cherish her memory are her three daughters, Janie Hall Hofler, Shirley Hall, Mary Hall Stokes (Troy Stokes-husband); two sisters, Lizzie McKay (New Haven, CT), Charlena Wilson Gattison (Florence, SC); two brothers, Lucious Gattison (Willie Mae) (CT), Roosevelt Gattison of Hartsville, SC.; eight grandchildren, twenty-nine great grandchildren, four great great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and other close relatives and friends.

Annie Mae Hall was preceded by her husband, James Robert Hall; son, Robert James Hall; four sisters, Eva Bell Bishop, Maggie Mae Ings (Gattison), Oneather Phillips Gattison, Dorothy Smith Gattison; two brothers, George Gattison Jr. and Willie Nelson Gattison.
