

Antoinette McMiller

July 16, 1962 - November 26, 2021

Antoinette McMiller passed away peacefully with her family by her side on November 26, 2021. She was born in New Orleans, LA on July 16, 1962 to the late Aline Smith and Benjamin Smith, Sr.

Antoinette was educated in the New Orleans, LA Public School System where she graduated from John McDonogh High School in 1980. She worked as a Bank Teller and Customer Service Representative in the New Haven area where she retired.

Antoinette was affectionately called Tootie by her siblings and Aunt Tootie by her nieces and nephews. She was also known as Toni.

Antoinette enjoyed playing bingo. She loved watching and listening to Joel Osteen, loved bonding with her siblings, "She Loved Life." Her favorite words were "Please" and "Thank You." She was known for her mannerism.

Antoinette leaves to cherish her memories (forever in their hearts) sisters, Cynthia Hines and Lisa Smith; brother Benjamin Smith, Jr.; her loving brother-in-law, Ronnie Hines, Sr.; her nephews and nieces whom she loved dearly with all her heart and with whom she would do anything for, Ronnie Hines, Jr., Shaun Hines, London Marie Smith (affectionately called Lon Lon by her); her great niece, Skye Hines; god-daughter, Zaniah Joyner; and a host of aunts, uncles and cousins.

We love you to infinity Antoinette and see you later, as you would say (you never liked to say goodbye).

Services will be held privately.

“ *Dear Family, My sincere condolences to the family. May God provide comfort during this time of grief.
When I think of Tootie I think of her saying "Down South". She would always ask us were we coming or going Down South. She was the first person I literally heard the phrase from and will never forget it.
God bless the family.
