

Austin Gorham

April 14, 1965 - March 18, 2023

Austin Charles Gorham (Boo), devoted son, brother, uncle and friend entered into eternal rest on Saturday, March 18, 2023. Austin was born April 14, 1965 in New Haven, CT to the late Yvonne Green and Bobby Gorham.

Austin was raised and educated in the New Haven school system. He was exceptional with his hands and became a cook for Quinnipiac College in the 1990's. Austin also worked for Ms. Mary Stewart at the "Penguin" store for many, many years.

Austin cherished the time he spent with family, especially his sisters and brothers. Named after his uncle, Austin Watts, Sr., (and like his uncle), his wit and corny jokes made his loving sense of humor apparent when he made people laugh. He gave those around him joy and was a joy to be around.

Austin struggled with life in New Haven, and soon went to live in Atlanta, GA where he spent many years of his life, establishing his own window washing service. After his health began to fail, Austin returned to New Haven where God took him home.

Austin Charles Gorham is predeceased by his parents, and he leaves to mourn his passing his brothers, Joseph and Robert Miller of New Haven, CT, Bobby Gorham of Boston, MA; his sisters, Dorothy Printz (Virgil) of Hamden, CT, Vivian Concepcion (Eddie) of New Haven, CT, Barbara Walker (James) of Hamden, CT, Patricia Richardson (Edward) of Savannah, GA and Jackie Gorham of Boston, MA; maternal uncles, Austin Watts, Sr. (Godfather), Vincent and Ronald Watts all of New Haven, CT; maternal aunts, Vivian Ellis of Shelton, CT, Laura Watts of New Haven, CT, Ivy Davis of Hamden, CT, Deborah Bowen of New Haven, CT, Patricia Bost (Randy) of Hamden, CT and Yvette McQueen of New Haven, CT; one great-aunt, Margaret Howlett of Woodbridge, CT; paternal uncle, Benjamin Gorham of Boston, MA; paternal aunts, Lossie and Willie Pearl Gorham of New Haven, CT; special friends, Ms. Cecilia Shepard and her son Sage Shepard of Atlanta, GA, and Ms, Michelle Small of Bridgeport, CT; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
