

Benvennueta Hugh Kinlock

June 1, 1968 - May 19, 2021

Benvennueta (friendlier known as Ben /Conrad) Hugh Kinlock, the son of Benjamin Kinlock and the late Avis Grant, was born on June 1, 1968 in Spanish Town, Jamaica W.I. He passed away unexpectedly on May 19, 2021 at his home located in Stratford, CT.

Conrad graduated Old Harbor High School in 1985 and began doing little odds and ends job at an automobile shop located on Old Harbor Road. He migrated to the United States in 1990 and was employed at Cober Electronics as a Welding Supervisor and Fabricator. He was a responsible employee and dedicated his time to the company by travelling to many Asian countries and illustrated his welding talents.

He was a very caring, loving and kind individual who would give his shirt off his back to someone who was in need. Conrad loved outdoor sports, he enjoyed deep sea diving, bow & arrow, range shooting, playing music, dominoes and video gaming. There was never a dull moment with Conrad, as he had to keep moving in order of not being bored.

He is survived by his sister, Donna Kinlock-Lewis; brother, Wayne Albert Kinlock (Donna Kinlock); and seven other siblings, Howard Kinlock, Linton Kinlock, Michael Kinlock, Karlene Spencer (Desmond Spencer), Christopher Kinlock, Christine Kinlock and Greg Kinlock; and numerous cousins, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, grandnephews and grandnieces.

His family and many friends will surely miss him and treasure his legacy of giving. Gone but not forgotten, may his soul rest in peace
