“ Sonnie, Kevin, Soupy - words cannot express how I am feeling right about now. In May of 2011, when Dawn passed, Mother Dudley sang her favorite song at the wake (Yes Jesus Loves Me), and Bishop spoke very encouraging words. Now they are all in a resting place that God has prepared for them. I can hear Mother yelling right now, Dudley, do this, don't do that. She was so funny. I remember back in the day, when you all first came to New Haven and it was just the Dawson's and the Dudley's on West St. We had some serious Church in the living room. But we were so tight as a family. Having the same blood isn't the only way to be family, we had that bond and love for one another. Soupy and Felicia would sing this song together, I'm Going Away. Now I can understand what they were singing about. You know that I love you all unconditionally. Sonnie, I am always here for you. I don't care who you brought around (male), Bishop was not having it. He accepted nobody for his baby girl. He was so protective of you. Look to the hills from whence cometh your help, for it cometh from the LORD. Love your big sister, Gaynell and your godsisters, Felicia, Yvonne and Felicia.

“ We are saddened at the news of the recent passing of our very dear friend and brother, Bishop Jasper Dudley.

Eleven years ago, when we were seeking a new residence for relocation from Trenton, New Jersey to the south, we received a phone call from Bishop and his late wife, Mother Julia Dudley asking us to visit Greenville, NC. where they resided. Upon our visit, we found a beautiful apartment, as well as a new Church home, Wells Chapel Church of God in Christ, under the leadership of Pastor/Superintendent Austin B. Parker, Jr., which we joined.

Bishop always expressed how much he loved the Lord and always had a great sense of humor. As we miss Mother Dudley, he will surely be missed by all who knew and loved him also.

Please know that our prayers for strength are for you Sonya and your family at the loss of your Father Bishop Dudley, a true servant of our Lord...

“ Sonya and Family,

It is with heartfelt sadness that we have learned of your Fathers recent passing. As you know, both he and your Mother Julia, were very close as Brother and Sister to us. It was because of how our Lord used them, which caused us to relocate to Greenville, NC. 11 years ago, from Trenton, NJ. Both had great senses of humor, mingled with seriousness and a sincere love for the Lord.

We last saw Bishop about 2 months ago when he came by our home to visit, as he always did when he came this way.

All of Bishop's cares and worries are now over, as he rests in the Lord's arms awaiting the final Judgement of God.

He like Missionary Dudley will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved them.

Stay STRONG Sonya in these last and evil days. Our Lord makes no mistakes...
