“ Little Angels
When God calls little children to dwell with Him above.
We mortals sometimes question the wisdom of His love. for no heartache compares with the death of one small child, who does so much to make our world seem wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to His fold.
So He picks a rosebud
before it can grow old.
God knows how much we need them and so He takes but few, to make the land of Heaven more beautiful to view.
Believing this is difficult still somehow we must try.
The saddest word mankind know will always be "Goodbye".
So when a child departs
we who are left behind, must realize God loves children, Angels are hard to find.

Baby Brooklyn, you are an Angel in Heaven resting peacefully. Your family loved you, but God loved you more. My prayers go out to the family. In your quiet time talk to God he will bring you through this rough time. Always know you have an Angel in Heaven who will watch over each and everyone of you.

*Love you all,
Ms. Trotman*
