

Calvin Hart

October 1, 1956 - June 18, 2022

Calvin B. Hart, 65, of Middletown, CT, passed into eternal rest on Saturday, June 18, 2022, reuniting with his beloved wife Carolyn (McDaniel) Hart. Calvin was born in Middletown, CT to the late Bert E. and Elouise (Green) Hart. Growing up in Middletown, Calvin attended Middletown public schools, graduating from Middletown High School, Class of 1974.

Following high school, Calvin enlisted in the military in 1975, under the Army Airborne division as a paratrooper stationed in Fort Bragg, North Carolina. While serving, Sargent Hart married his high school sweetheart, Carolyn. After completing his service, Calvin and his family moved back to Middletown, CT, where he furthered his education, graduating with an Associate Degree in Electrical Engineering from Hartford State Technical College in Hartford, CT, now known as Capital Community College. Calvin worked for Pratt & Whitney for approximately 10 years, moving onto Connecticut Light and Power, presently Eversource, for more than 35 years until retiring.

Calvin was truly a Man of God and served on many church ministries in the role of Head Deacon, Head Church Treasurer, Evangelism Explosion Outreach Member, Men's Ministry Member, Sunday School Instructor, Adult Choir Director, and Youth Mentor.

Calvin enjoyed cutting his grass, studying, traveling, sports (Mets & Greenbay Packers), fried fish and chicken, singing, spending time with his family, Parliament Funkadelics and many old school classics. He also enjoyed testing his childrens' and grandchildrens' knowledge by engaging them in discussions and riddled questions; "Mildew or barbeque?" Most of all, he enjoyed praising, worshiping and serving the Lord. Calvin had a heart for people and shared the good news of Jesus Christ through the Word, aspiring to grow the Body of Christ. He truly wanted all to experience God's love and to one day, enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

Calvin's memory will be cherished by his three children, Darnell (Tawana) Hart, Ivan (Angel Cote) and Yalonda (Maurice Overton); grandchildren S'Nani, Dajon, Darrence, Josiah, Imani, Dasia, Jerimiah, and Ivan II; brother Thaddeus (Melissa) Hart, sister Selina (Jerome) Anderson, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Calvin was predeceased by his brother Emmanuel Hart and sister Mayphine Hart.

“ To my cousins:
I still remember the summers when your parents watched me. Those were some of the best memories of my life. Not just growing up with you guys but also learning a lot and laughing a lot with your parents. Life happens and people tend to drift apart but those memories are everlasting. I love you guys and will pray for you everyday.

“ I grew up in Zion Baptist Church and the South End of Middletown with the Hart family. Calvin was closer in age to my sister Debra and I. We loved his funny friendly and just “nice guy” spirit. We have fond memories of the entire family and my heart and prayers go out to you all during this difficult time of yet another beloved family member lost. I take comfort that your family knows the love of Jesus and the strength of His love has always and will always see you through. Brother Calvin is certainly among many loved ones in his new heavenly home. Love you all.

“ I am saddened to hear of Calvin’s passing. We worked together in Middletown as field techs, and had many good conversations about God and his family. I remember how he shared with me stories of his first grandchild. I retired 22 years ago and and hadn’t seen him since, but I have never forgotten him. He was a fine Christen and devoted to his family.
