

Cameron Davis Taylor

April 8, 1965 - February 1, 2026

Cameron T. Bowes Davis Taylor peacefully went home to be with the Lord on February 1, 2026, at Yale New Haven Hospital, surrounded by her loving family. Cameron was born on April 8, 1965, in New Haven, Connecticut, to the late Sharon M. Bowes and Tony Soares. She attended New Haven Public Schools and later furthered her education at Data Institute, where she earned a degree in Computer Technology. Cameron also attended Conncat where she received her degree in Culinary Arts. In 1995, Cameron married Joseph Taylor:

In the years that followed, she gave her life to the Lord. She faithfully served as a personal nurse for many years before answering her calling to preach the Gospel as an Evangelist.

Cameron truly loved the Lord and lived her life in service to Him. To know Cameron was to smile. She loved her family dearly and had a heart for everyone she met. Cameron loved to cook and would "tear that kitchen up," proudly saying she got it from her mama. She loved having her nails done, adored jewelry, and had a true passion for fashion. She was always sharp her hair always laid, and her style was always on point.

Cameron leaves to cherish her loving memory her four sisters, Samone D. Davis, Tammy Bowes, Tracey Bowes, and Tarra Bowes; her brother, whom she loved dearly, Timothy V. Bowes II; her brother-in-love, Anthony Rhodes; two uncles, Edward Beamen and Phil Brown (Amoy); and four aunts, Greta Johnson, Elizabeth David, Delores Carl, and Victoria Edwards.

She also leaves her sister-in-law Madeline Dennis; special niece Tonya Anderson; one great-niece and one great-nephew; two godchildren, Za Miya Boyd and Jay'Lon Boyd; her child Nekia Wilson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Cameron was preceded in death by her beloved mother, the great Sharon Bowes; her father, Tony Soares; Apostle Timothy Bowes Sr.; her husband, Jason Taylor; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

“Cam meant so much to our team. We will always remember how dependable Cam was. No matter how long the day or how busy the election, she showed up ready to work hard and support everyone around her. Promoting her to moderator was easy — she had already proven she had the integrity, patience, and heart for it. She was not only an outstanding worker, but a truly good person. But most of all, we appreciate the fight she had within against every task in her life. That’s what makes her special. Overall, we are grateful for her service and for the person she was. And we are appreciative for the time we had with her. Peace and prayers to the family. From the New Haven Registrar of Voters office (Shannel Evans, Elizabeth DeMatteo and Maritza Gant)

“ To Davis&Taylor Family: sending my condolences on Cameron I couldn't believe when I saw it that she had passed it was just yesterday. She was in Stop & Shop shopping and we were talking about elections.

Cameron was a faithful worker for the city of New Haven registered voters in the polls, always was there and we go anywhere if we asked her to work long if had transportation, she always had a smile on her face and love to cook. I was so proud of her when she told me about she had just got her certification in culinary. could remember the time when she used to come and visit her mother over on Bristol Street and will sit on the porch with her, her mother and the little dog and laughing joke about things now she's going home to a better place to share her talents and cooking helping others and with a smile on her face along with her Mobil car may your soul rest in peace you'll never be forgotten. You always have a place in my heart.
