

Candice Marie Brockenberry

October 29, 1987 - December 17, 2014

Candice Marie Brockenberry was born in New Haven, CT on October 29, 1987 to Tammie Lisa McClain and Christopher Willis Brockenberry, Sr. (deceased). On Wednesday, December 17, 2014 the Lord called Candice home to rest. And without struggle or hesitation, she took flight into the arms of Jesus. Candice now rests in the eternal peace of the Most High God. Candice attended High School in the Community and Hillhouse High School, but ultimately received her GED from Westover Job Corps. Candice obtained her CNA license and from the time she was 17 years old worked two jobs. She worked at Family Care, Thomas Park and Marrakech. Candice pursued her LPN at Porter and Chester until it became too difficult for her to continue and she took a leave of absence.

In 2009, when Candice joined the Commyssun Motorcycle Club – she found a second family. Affectionately known to them as Candi, she gained a host of new brothers and sisters.

Candice loved working and helping people and she had a great sense of humor; she was constantly telling jokes. Candice inspired all who knew her and despite her own pain and discomfort, she still managed to say something that would cause you to smile and afterward you would ask yourself, with all that she's going through how did she make me feel better? Candice loved to sing and to bake but most of all, she enjoyed spending time with her nephew and nieces, Taveon, Taleah and Samya and eating Ferrero chocolates and popsicles.

Devoted daughter of Tammie Lisa McClain, loving sister of Tiffany Brockenberry, Christopher Brockenberry, Jr., Malik Brockenberry, Leah and Malaysia Hammond, cherished aunt of Taveon, Taleah and Samya. Candice leaves to cherish her memory special friends Bruce Barros, Anthony Hammond and a host of cousins aunts, uncles and friends.
