

Candice Shaleen Johnson

October 19, 1982 - December 17, 2018

Candice S. Johnson was born on October 19, 1982 in New Haven, CT to Glynis Johnson and Percy Penn. She entered into eternal life on December 17, 2018.

After completing high school, Candice continued her education earning an Associated Degree from Gateway Community College, and a Bachelor's Degree from Albertus Magnus College where she proudly graduated Summa Cum Laude. Candice was currently working towards receiving her Master's Degree from Albertus Magnus College where she would have graduated on May 19, 2019.

Candice (aka "Puff"), was best known as a loving and dedicated mother, sister, student, and friend. She is survived by her son Glyn'Daniel (19), and her daughter Mali'Ann (9). In addition, she leaves behind eight sisters: Rayshena, Tanisha (Alexander Brantley), Toni (Sean Lucas), Glynis, Destiny, Desiray, Velanise and Savannah Johnson, five brothers: Emanuel, Esau, Miguel, Anthony Johnson and Perrdy Penn. Five of her siblings she began raising as her own children at the age of 19 years old. Candice also leaves behind six nephews (Candice's "little people") known as her triple M's who were her world as they pushed her motivation. Candice also leaves a host of loving family and friends.

Candice inspired and touched so many people, she will truly be missed. Help us celebrate her by remembering one of her favorite quotes:

“Hope has two beautiful daughters; their names are Anger and Courage. Anger at the way things are, and Courage to see that they do not remain as they are.” ~St. Augustine~

“ It is with a sad heart and spirit that I mourn the loss of your mother, sister, daughter, niece, aunt and friend Candice. I have known her for several years as a student, friend, confidant and family. We had many conversations about her life, God, religion and other things that she cared about. She often ended the conversations asking me to pray for her and I did. She was a very smart and determined young woman who always completed her work on time and was eager to push herself to make that A in every class. She often spoke of getting her degree for her children in the hope that she would be their role model and they would continue their education. I ask them to grant her wish and to continue with their education and make her proud. Remember the good times, laughter, joy and special moments you shared with her.

I know she is smiling down on her family and friends and their sadness at her passing. I believe she is with God and wishing she could ease the pain we all feel. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. And so, when life with its struggles and toils and sins, bringing us perpetual conflict, ends at last in the fierce struggle of death, then God "giveth his beloved sleep." They sleep in Jesus, and awake to the joy of a morning which shall know no wane -- the morning of joy. The Sun of Righteousness is beaming on them. May God bless you all at this time of sadness and grief and may His spiritual guidance bring you joy. Candice was with a short time but she has gone on to glory and we who are one in Christ will see her again.

“ Words can not describe how my heart ❤️ feels. If I could have one moment to let you know how special you were to me, how proud I was to have you accept me and call me your big sister. To just let you know you were crazy 😳, sexy and cool 😎 and if people could not accept that then let them go. Your truly going to be missed. You gave people a chance, you gave life a chance even when the pain was not bearable. I pray that you are in a better place look down on your 2 babies they NEED you. I love ❤️ you and miss you 😭 my baby sis. Thank you 🙏 for Always keeping it Real. RIP, SIP... from Tie
