“ Grandma Carrie always adored Charla. She gave my mother a beautiful grandson. Ohhh he was so adorable. Charla always said how strong I was and how she admired me. Truth is she was the strong one. She was an admiration to me. You fought a good fight sis. God needed you to be his angel now because he didn't want you to suffer. You are now with God. With my mom Carrie and so many other family members who are in heaven. We will always miss you but you are never forgotten. We love you Charla.
