“ First, I would like to give my deepest condolences to the Jackson's Family. I can't believe it took me a whole month to final write on the tribute wall. I am truly hurt to the core of my heart; words can't express how hurt I am. You had such a gentle, kind, caring, & fun loving spirit. I'm so glad our spirits met each other. I'll always cherish our long time friendship. I didn't see or hear from you all the time, but when I did it was all good. When I was going through my trial and tribulation you were there. You gave me a helping hand, lifted me up, & reminded me who I am. I thank God for the opportunity in knowing you and even though I'm sad about your departure. We should met again; much love my brother.

“ Extending my love and condolences to the whole family. Absolutely hurt by this. He talked highly about his family.

I met Charles in April of 2017 at JR Wheel and we instantly became homies. Through out the 7 years of working side by side, we ended up developing a father & daughter relationship. He treated me better than my own biological father. So this feels like losing my other parent. Always was willing to help and look out for me and others. He was amazing. Anytime he would make food he would bring me some (only if the family didn't eat it up his good meals yet lol) or even when he would buy food here at work he always made sure i got some too. He always aimed to include me in just about everything. All these years working with him we have helped each other grow in a way. He started as my lead while I was his finalist and then become my supervisor and automatically wanted to put me in a lead position. He taught me everything. Always been grateful for him. I am going to miss charles very much. Definitely not the same without his presence. He may be sleeping for the rest of this lifetime but his spirit will live on for ever. Rest peacefully charles. Make sure you watch as many games as you want.
