“ My deepest sympathies go out to the family and friends of Cheryl. Know that no matter how much we hurt inside and how much we miss those that we care about and love, that God has a bigger plan for us all. His angel has been called upon and carried home where she can finally rest, peacefully. God bless!

“ Dear Cheryl...There's so much to say that i want to say to you. I'm fighting through the sadness and emptyness of a completely broken heart. But i'm also able to say what i need to say because of the memories i have of you that brings me happiness and stops the tears from flowing. Here goes...sometimes you encounter people that completely makes you a better person than you were before you met them...Cheryl, you was definetely one of them people for me. You were like a big sister to me, you always had my best interest at heart and always looked out for me. Our relationship wasn't so much mushy or sentimental but WE had an unspoken understanding on how we felt about each other as being BEST friends. Your actions spoke in volumes on how valuable our friendship was to you and words cannot begin to express how fortunate and appreciative i am to have you have you as a friend. In the spirit of our friendship and not getting TOO sentmental i will end with this...Cheryl, thank you for being the warm, caring and giving person that you are and i will carry your spirit with me for the rest of my life because you truly made me a better person. To my ACE...I love you all day every day! RIP!

Love,

Dennis
