“ From Pastor O'Tis Prioleau and the Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church family

To the Murray family, may God bless you and keep you during this time of bereavement. Your loss is our loss and we definitely share with you, your grief. God has seen fit to take a new member for His heavenly choir, a member for his Church School class, a dedicated soldier for His spiritual army, and a true servant of the Living God!! Cheryl will definitely be missed. She was a kind and gentle person that came into our lives at Bethlehem Baptist Church and we were friends forever. The sweetest , kindest person that anyone would ever want to meet. As Cheryl's former Deacon, she was a very dependable member and one of the most caring people you would want to meet.

Guy, trust God in His infinite wisdom and He will guide and direct your path through this time in your life.

God Bless and keep you,

Minister Jacob D. Wilson, Jr.

“ We are so sorry to hear about Cheryl. She was such a joy to be with, always smiling. We know she is in a better place with a brand new heart. May you find comfort Larry in knowing that she is with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We are trying to get in touch with you and are praying for your strength through this grieving time. With our great love for our little brother Jeppy and Kathy Murray

“ Cheryl Murray was a friend that was always there for me if I needed her. She was a blessing to everyone. She always had a smile on her face. We were members of the same church (Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church) in Salters, SC, before she moved back to CT. I will truly miss my friend. I know Cheryl is smiling down on us, no more pain. Love you Cheryl.

“ Always smiling and never complaining; that's how I will remember you my dear sister-in-love. You brought joy and love to the heart of my brother Larry (Guy) who will miss you dearly. The day of your surgery, we spoke briefly via telephone; I remember you saying "Yep, we'll just do what the Lord says, cause He is in control," so here we are saying, "Amen." To the other family members I say, may the God of all comfort, comfort you now and hold you up as you grieve the loss of one so dear as our "Cheryl." You are absent from this earthly life but you are now present with the LORD Eternally, Hallelujah!! from: Carolyn Murray Hamilton & family, Dallas, TX. (Billy Sr., Billy Jr., Terrence, and Jerrymaine Hamilton).
