

Christopher L. "SIP" Townsend

November 15, 1976 - November 9, 2016

Christopher L. Townsend, a.k.a "SIP" was born on Nov. 15, 1976 to Ms. Bernice Pittman, the late William Townsend SR. & step father Robert Pittman in New Haven, CT. Christopher went home to be with our Lord on the morning of Wed. Nov. 9, 2016. Christopher attended Wilbur Cross High school in New Haven, CT. He was loved by many and anyone who knew him was bound to be left with a smile from the genuine love and affect from him.

A jack of all trades, and known for his comical conversation, classic man style, swag, and his bluntness. Chris was extremely loving and kind. Chris' greatest loves were his family, and his children. He also took a huge interest in music, traveling, cars, and enjoying life.

His legacy will live on through his fiancé Krystal Yard, children, Christopher C. Wisdom U., Knowlij G., Anaya S., Supreme K. & Messiah P. Townsend; three step children, Marquesha Mccray, Naseef Mccray, and Taevon Oates; sisters Queba Townsend & Doris Jefferson(Terell); brothers William Townsend Jr. (Racquel), Matthew & Joshua Whitted, mother of children Quantinn Oates along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces & nephews and friends who loved him deeply. Chris was predeceased by paternal and maternal grandparents, two uncles, an aunt and two cousins.

“ It's crazy how you been gone for five years , time flys by fast . Not a day goes by we don't think about you ! Cause we do and wish you was here with us . I can see you be laughing , smiling and making jokes with family and friends . You will always have a special place in our heart ! Your birthday coming up and the day you pass which is too close apart . The good always die young but your spirit forever lives on ! 🙏 We love you so much ! Rock the heavens SIP ! One love
