

Cornelia Lockhart

August 18, 1934 - November 27, 2025

Cornelia Lockhart, affectionately known as “Bea,” 91, of Middletown CT, peacefully transitioned on Thursday November 27, 2025, at home. Bea was born on August 18, 1934, to the late Sally Young and John Parker. A care giver for many years Bea looked after the children in her neighborhood, affording the parents an opportunity to work and take care of their families. She was also a devoted and loving Mother of her own five children, as well as a loyal friend to many. Bea enjoyed cooking, dancing, and entertaining, so to know her was to love her. With complete faith in her Lord and Savior, Bea learned how to lean and depend on Jesus especially in her final days and would often have conversations with Him everyday.

Bea leaves to cherish in her memories, her beloved twin sister, Geneva Burden of Dallas Georgia, with whom she shared a very special bond, her son Tony (Joyce) Lockhart of Meriden, CT, two daughters, Lorraine Lockhart of New Haven, CT and Sandra (Elbert) Watson of Middletown, CT, 17 grandchildren, and a host of great grands, great great grands, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and a special nephew, Bobby Lockhart of Dallas, Georgia.

Bea was predeceased by her parents, Sally Young and John Parker, a sister, Catherine Lowrey, a son, Marvin James, a daughter Clarissa Bland, and a grandson, Tyrese Lockhart.
