

D'shown T. Myers

October 20, 2001 - February 23, 2020

D'Shown Tyrese Myers of New Haven, departed this life on Sunday, February 23, 2020. Born October 20, 2001 in New Haven. He is survived by his mother Laquvia Jones, his father Dontae Myers, Sr, (Shameka) two brothers, Dontae Myers Jr, and Carter Myers, one sister Destiny Myers, his maternal grandmother Harriett Banks, a host of aunts, uncles, nephew, relatives, and friends. He comes from a very large family.

In D'Shown's earlier years he was very active in Church and made a profession of faith in Christ. He had such a gift of encouraging people, he would be active in prayer at the Nursing Home and he brought so much joy to the elderly patient. On one occasion there was a woman that was very ill and dying, she always refused prayer or scripture reading from the Ministers, but this Saturday D'Shown was with us and she let him pray for her, which touched her heart so much, she opened her heart to Jesus and became a Christian he was only about 9 years old. She let us continue to minister to her to her death which was only a few months later. He was actively involved in sports, basketball and football and was very good at it. Did you ever see that smile? It was a million dollar smile. What a tragedy; about 13 years of age he strayed away from God and the church. All that potential was cut off at such a young age through a series of wrong choices and being with the wrong people. He was in the process of coming back to who he really was when his life was cut short. The Scriptures teach that God is long-suffering, (D'shown at 8 years old said yes He is, but He is not ever suffering), which means we have to turn to God from the wrong that we are doing before it is too late.
