“ To the Harrington family from the Smith family, our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. We remember Daisy well as we were two of the largest families growing up on Ashmun St. and the low-rise in New Haven quite some time ago. There are many good, happy memories from that time when the world seemed like a different and more innocent place. May the peace of God and His comfort rest in the hearts of all of you.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves memories no one can steal. Cherish the times you shared with Daisy to comfort your broken heart.
