“Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted” (Matthew 5:4)

To the Family of Sister Dawn. I want to sincerely offer my heartfelt condolences to you and to the host of friends. I did not know Sister Dawn for very long, but met her as we attended the same Church, the House of Refuge. Sister Dawn was well loved and showed her love to others. She will be truly missed, however I look forward to seeing her again. When we meet and celebrate together, in Heaven around the Throne of our Heavenly Father, and see Him and Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior, face to face.

Family, please know that you remain in my prayers. Love, Elder Diane Young

“ To the family of Sister Dawn Connor, our heartfelt condolence, asking God's peace and love to unite you as a family. Sister Dawn would want you to look after each other, and most of all to be saved. We have this hope in Christ Jesus that are born again it is never good-bye, we will be reunited in heaven. We had the privilege of watching her grow tremendously in her faith these last six months. When we first met her over two years ago, she shared she had not been in fellowship consistently at any church for over 20 years. Learn and follow her example to faithfully follow Jesus in service, loving, caring and in living a God honoring life. From her last church home, House of Refuge, Pastor Dorothy Marie Greene and Co-Pastor Jimmy Greene and the entire congregation.
