“ *To the family:
You have my sympathy and I loved this young man. He stopped by my house to tell me he was going to be a dad and was he happy, smiling from ear to ear. He had such a beautiful smile. I worked at Lincoln Bassett school. One day he introduced me to his wife and the smile was and showed he was Happy. May God be with all of you and let him wrap his around you for comfort.

“ Deamond. Cousin/Auntie Tracey has so many memories of you, but I want to share the Last moments we had Together. We were at cousin/aunt Ivy house on Labor day. You walked into her yard with the biggest smile on your face. You were so Happy to be in the present of family. You came over to me and gave me the biggest hug ever and said auntie I Love you, kissed my cheek while still holding me tight. I told you, you know I love you more, but umm I can't breathe. Lol you just started laughing and said my bad auntie and gave me another with that smile I will Always see whenever I think of you. If I had known that was the the Last hug, I would get from you. I would have hugged you, until you said ok auntie now I can't breathe. Rest Peacefully in God's Arms. Love you Always Aunty Tracey Suggs
