

Donald Barker II

April 13, 1954 - October 1, 2022

Donald Barker Jr, II was born to Mrs. Bertha Mae Barker and Donald Barker Sr. (both deceased) in Wilmington, North Carolina.

He was a long time resident of New Haven, Connecticut where he completed High School at Wilbur Cross. Donald was named best dressed of his senior class. He held quite a few jobs after graduation before he entered the United States Army, where served honorably for 14 years. During his stay in the army, he climbed the ranks and traveled to many different countries. He experienced life and cultures that helped to shape him into an outstanding soldier and unique individual. As a devoted soldier he fought bravely during the Desert Storm war. Donald took pride in all that he did. Putting others first was always a priority to him. He was intelligent and gentle and loved his family unconditionally. He had the singing voice of an angel and was said to sound like Motown recording artist Smokey Robinson and Little Anthony of the Imperials. The Lord called him into eternal rest on October 1, 2022 in the city of Miami, Florida where he resided for the past 3 years.

Donald leaves behind to mourn, cherish his memory and celebrate his life: a step father: James Faison, of New Haven; 2 ex-wives: Theresa Lawson-Barker of New Haven and Donna Allison-Barker of Colorado; 3 sons: Donald Barker Jr. III of California, Bryan Barker of Colorado, Terrance Steveson of New Haven; 1 daughter: Kimberly Stevenson of North Carolina; 4 sisters:

Diane Barker of Florida, Theresa Faison of New Haven, Bonnie Faison of New Haven; Barbara Witherspoon of New Haven; a first cousin: Denise Bryant of New Haven; 3 grandchildren; 6 great grandchildren; 9 nieces and 7 nephews; 29 great nieces and nephews; 2 great great nephews; 1 aunt: Marion Bryant of New Haven; along with a multitude of other relatives, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends all of which he loved very much. He is greatly loved, will be truly missed and will remain in our hearts and memories forever. He was a father, grandfather, uncle, nephew, brother and true friend. May Almighty God grant him peace.
