“ Don was more than a friend to many of us he was a brother, a confidant, and a constant source of support and laughter. His infectious smile and kind heart made him a joy to be around, and he touched the lives of everyone he met. i miss you Big Bro one thing that Don taught me and i will never forget When you lose someone you love, you gain an angel you know

Rest easy Big bro

“ So many memories, stories and nicknames we had together you are like a big brother to me. You will never be forgotten as long as I live so glad we met at Anthem and became family afterwards, at one point we spoke on a daily basis you always listened. I will still talk to you bro! Love for you and your family.

“ To the Robinson family...I watched you grow from a little boy in church, to a grown man, married, husband and dad. life gives us so much and sometimes God decides we've had enough and gives us rest. You will be sorely missed here on this earth, but your spirit, your smile and the love you shared with so many will last forever...Rest in Eternal Peace. Prayers and condolences to the family and friends. 🙏💙🙏
