

Doris L. Staton

April 7, 1937 - April 29, 2021

Doris Louise Staton of New Haven was called home on Thursday, April 29, 2021. Doris was born in Greenville, North Carolina on April 7, 1937, to the late Lewis and Lillie Graham Blow.

Doris was truly the matriarch of her family. She was very family-oriented and was known to host parties, especially for her birthday which was full of love, joy, and fun. She enjoyed attending family gatherings no matter how far she would have to travel. Doris simply loved her family. For generations, she would go the extra mile to open up her home to care for her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. She was a pillar in her family.

Doris spent her leisure time cooking and sewing for her family. She was very creative. By hand, she would make her great-grandchildren fancy fur coats. It was nothing to enter her home and see new curtains, throw blankets, and other crafty things she had made. She was also known to share stories. She had a memory like an elephant. She could remember names, dates, and events in detail. Her presence will be sadly missed.

Doris is survived by four sisters, Gloria McCurdy, Mabel Mincey, Shirley Harris, and Lena Gray, two sons Paul Staton and Michael (Annette) Staton, two daughters Deborah Daniels and Angela Station. She leaves to a host of grandchildren to cherish her memory, Tamara Lee, Ebony LaKeisha Lathrop, Mary Staton, Bobbie Cheri Maebry, Dana Burton, Dasia Daniels, Earl Station III, Shannon Lee, Travis Lee, Tyjuan (Sheena Moore) Staton, Anthony Maebry, Gary Maebry, and Zechariah Maebry and a special nephew Anthony Harris as well as a host of special nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

She was predeceased by her late husband Earl Station Sr, two brothers Willie Blow Sr. and Thomas Harris, sister Helen Chambers and three sons, Earl Staton Jr, Marvin Staton, and Carl Staton.
