

Dwaneia Alexandria Turner

April 21, 1992 - March 16, 2021

Dwaneia Alexandria Turner, “Nene”, born on April 21, 1992, to the parents of Roberta Black and Dwayne Turner, left this earthly realm on March 16, 2021. She attended New Haven Public Schools.

Nene loved her two children, Sanaá Turner and Cordell Weston and would do anything for them! Everyone who knew her, witnessed her love for her children.

Nene enjoyed cooking! One of her friends said, “she should’ve been a contestant on the show “Chopped” because her food was EVERYTHING 😊”. Baked macaroni and cheese, meatballs, baked ziti and stuffed shells, were just a few of her specialties. Another friend said, “the food was the BOMB!” Not only was she the life of the party, she always came dressed to impress and she turned heads! She had her own style, she did things outside of the box. She would see something and say “Chayyyyy, I would have done it like this!”

Beautiful, kind, loving, free spirit... An amazing spirit that goes unnoticed.. Loving, caring, full of joy & surprises... she left an imprint on everyone no matter if she knew them for 10 years or an hour, Nene is just that amazing person... these are just a few sentiments from those who knew and loved her deeply.

She leaves behind to preserve her memory, her 2 children, Sanaá and Cordell; mother, Roberta Black; sister, Taché White; brother, William Brown; Brandon Fiason, Dwayne Turner Jr. and host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

She is predeceased by her father, Dwayne Turner.
