

Dwight Keighly Fullwood

June 3, 1949 - August 9, 2017

Dwight K Fullwood Sr., of Hartford, CT was called home by the Lord on Wednesday, August 9, 2017. He was a member of Liberty Christian Center, where he was a faithful servant. He was predeceased by his parents, Annie Mae Bernard Fullwood and Alexander Fullwood, and several of his siblings. He was a graduate of George Washington Carver High School of Newport News, VA, class of 1967. He had advanced to the level of Journeyman and worked as a carpenter until his health failed.

He leaves to mourn, 5 sons, Carlos Capeles of Bridgeport, CT, Alexander Capeles of Ansonia, CT, Richard Hodge of Hartford, CT, Avanti Simmons of New Haven, CT, Dwight Keighly Fullwood Jr. from Temple Hill, M.D and one daughter, Negia Hayes of Hartford, CT and three grandchildren. He is also survived by four sisters, Gwendolyn Fullwood Foster and Lucretia Fullwood Edlow (Larry) of Newport News VA, Alexandria Fullwood Brock-Washington (Matthew) of New Haven CT, and Angela Fullwood Robertson (Garland) of Stafford, VA and three brothers, Gerald Fullwood Sr of Hartford, CT, Dale Fullwood Sr and Bradley Fullwood of Newport News, VA; seven grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. His daily phone calls to family members, his humor and contagious smile will be sorely missed!

“ Remembering my childhood when my Fullwood family from VA would visit us in NC. Dwight and Pixie were close to my age and I was always excited to see them. To me Dwight was so tall and so handsome! I know he will be greatly missed. I just pray that my cousins get through this loss by holding on to all of their good memories and God's promise to bring them all together again in our Heavenly Home! I love all of you! Cousin Ella

“ To: My Friend, DWIGHT, I often called You (Abraham-look-alike) because You reminded Me of MY Dad. You will be missed; We would Check-In from time to time to simply say, "HI" [S.I.P] Pam ❤️ No more Suffering 📧 say, HEY to My Father 🙏
