“ A note to Shawn, his wife and son. Also, to Julia and all family members. It's been tough I know. You each have made remarkable efforts and have done a job "well done." Pop and Ma are smiling from Heaven - they are together at last. May they rest in peace!

They know as God knows were are not perfect - we don't have to be.

The girls and I wish you well. I ask that if you can't ever understand or forgive my not being there, that we each find a way to move on. Let us cherish Pops loving and dear memory.

“ Just saying goodbye to the only grandfather i have ever known. Although we have lost contact when grandma died, I have always thought about you and hoped that you were okay. You have lived a wonderful and fulfilling life and you no longer have to suffer. Say hello to grandma for me.

*Love,
