

Edna McCotter Cox

January 2, 1939 - January 13, 2021

Edna Ree McCotter Cox was born on January 2, 1939. To the late Abraham and Cora McCotter. She was the youngest of eleven children. She was preceded in death by her husband Sam Cox, her eight brothers, one sister, and numerous aunts and uncles.

Edna Ree didn't have any children of her own but was very instrumental in helping to raise her older sister's six children. She loved all her nieces and nephews dearly and she was loved by them. She grew up with most of her nieces and nephews, she played games with them, and she was everyone's favorite aunt.

Edna Ree attended and graduated from South Ayden High School in Ayden, North Carolina. Later in life she moved and made a home in New Haven, Connecticut but she never forgot her hometown, Ayden, NC or her roots. She returned to North Carolina at least twice a year.

Edna Ree was a member of Deliverance Temple Pentecostal Church in New Haven, Connecticut under the leadership of Pastor Julia McCotter, her sister-in-law. She served faithfully as a deaconess until her health began to decline. She was also a member of the choir and pitched in anywhere she was needed.

Edna Ree was well known for her cooking and enjoyed fellowshiping with her family and church. She will be missed by everyone who knew and loved her; especially by her family.

Edna Ree is cherished dearly by the six children she helped raise: James McCotter (Gwen), William Gardner, Linda Wharton (John), Mary Gardner-McCauley (Charles), and Janet G. Maye all of New Haven, Connecticut. She also leaves to cherish her niece Essie G. Wilson (Frankie) of Ayden, North Carolina, her sister-in-law Julia McCotter of New Haven, Connecticut and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. Special thanks to her Care Giver, Lakeya Wilkins.
