

Elder Jamarr A. Myrick

November 22, 1977 - March 24, 2024

Elder Jamarr A. Myrick was born to Cheryl J. Hill and the late Ulysses G. Myrick on November 22, 1977, in New Haven, Connecticut. Jamarr was initially introduced to church at an early age by his mother. He attended New Haven Public Schools and graduated from James Hillhouse High School in 1995. He attended Zion Divinity School, Hartford Seminary and studied at Springfield College in Springfield, Mass. Jamarr always had a passion for church and the desire to lead in the Church. He was employed by The New Haven Board of Education as a Paraprofessional at Jackie Robinson Middle School. In 1999, Mrs. Eleanor Boyd recommended that he receive training at Jackie Robinson under the leadership of Dr. Belinda Carberry, who became very influential in his life, becoming a mother figure to him. Later in his career he became a Dropout Prevention Specialist within the New Haven Board of Education. "Myrick" helped so many students and afforded them many opportunities to focus on learning and their future. He started the gospel choir at Jackie Robinson where he met and adopted his two Godchildren: Tiffany Baines and Davida Fulton.

A man of vision, integrity and wisdom, Elder Jamarr A. Myrick sought God for ways to help society believe in whom they served. Thus in 2012, he established his motto, "ANOINTED TO SURVIVE". Elder Myrick has been a mentor, role model, example, and father-figure to many. An honorable and upright Man of God, his character was consistent with his life and message.

He preached faith and he lived faith. He was so cherished for his biblical teaching of faithfulness to God, his excellent work ethics, and diligence in business. In September 2021 he started his own Graphic Design business. He named his business, Royal Printing. There is so much to Jamarr everything he touched flourished.

“ My Memory of Jamarr I will always cherish and it will always be with me. The last few times as well as our phone conversation was always about a scripture we had read that day and what the words meant to us and sometimes we read the same scripture. We also played gospel music from our phone. Jamarr was a strong man and a man after our God own heart. I know he finished the race for he stayed in the word until he was called home. I am so very blessed to have been a part of his life and he will always be in my heart. My condolences to his entire family. I love you all. Stay strong.
