“ I am sorry to learn that there was a death in your family. The loss of a loved one is very painful. I'd like to share scripture that may bring comfort to your family. Mark 5:35-43 reads in part...While Jesus was speaking, he overheard men telling an officer of the synagogue that his daughter died. Upon hearing this, Jesus, Peter, James and John, the brother of James, went alone to the officer's home. When they arrived, Jesus went to the deceased child and told her to get up. Immediately, she got up. You see, Jehovah promises a resurrection of our loved ones. (Acts 24:15) We must have faith in this promise. We can strengthen our faith by also reading Isaiah 55:11 and Isaiah 25:8.

“ My condolences go out to the family of Ms Fain. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with a comforting promise and it involves us seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ Sis. Fain whom I affectionately called "auntie" growing up in Ebenezer Chapel, was one of the most kindest, loving and quietest people I've known. Her spirit of godliness showed through her love of family and friends. I pray that the family holds on to God's unchanging hand.
