

Emma Walker

March 21, 1926 - October 26, 2015

Emma Walker, 89, returned to her heavenly home on October 26, 2015. Emma was born to the late James and Emma (Cotton) Antrum, in Darlington, SC on March 21, 1926. Emma made New Haven, CT her home in the early 1940s. She was a long time employee of the Winchester Gun Factory until her retirement. Emma is one of four siblings and helped nurture and care for the children of her two younger siblings, Geneva Walker and Ellen McCray. Emma was a dedicated aunt, mother figure, and sister who loved animals, sports, and gospel music. She developed special relationships with all of her nieces and nephews and a close friend, Danise McNeil and family -- whom she loved, guided and supported unconditionally. She is loved most for her humour, honesty, courage, and love for life.

Emma is survived by her younger sisters; Geneva Walker and Ellen McCray, a godson; Frank Carr, and a host of nieces, nephews and family members who loved Emma dearly. She is preceded in death by her brother, Leroy Alford of Pinehurst, NC; and her parents; James and Emma (Cotton) Antrum.
