“ She called me her Marty mar. I set my alarm for when she got off work so I could make sure she got home safe, then read her to sleep.
I texted her good morning every day. She was my angel.

“ Our heartfelt love, prayers and sympathies go out to the family and friends of Erica. Stacy and Dominique, although we only had the pleasure of working with Erica for a short while, we will fondly remember how professionally Erica carried herself and what a stylish dresser she was. May God be with you all and keep you all in His comforting loving care. Erica, fly high pretty little Angel.
