

Ernestine Hobson

March 15, 1927 - March 17, 2017

Ernestine Hobson, a long-time resident of the New Haven area, transitioned to her final resting place on Friday, the 17th of March, 2017.

Ernestine, who was also affectionately known as “Sharky”, worked most of her adult life in the medical field, at the locally well-known establishment, of Dr. Timpson’s; where her beautiful smile and unforgettable voice, greeted patients for decades.

Ernestine loved talking with people, spending time with her loved ones, having a good laugh, watching movies, and enjoying good food. Ernestine throughout her life, displayed time and time again, what it meant to have unconditional love, for those she cared for deeply.

Ernestine was predeceased by her parents Elizabeth Jones and Michael Cook; her stepmother Mae Cook, her husband Harold Hobson, and her sons Edward Chuckie Robinson and Guy Robinson. Evidence of Ernestine’s time spent on this earth, lives on in the memories of her brother Michael Cook, and her children Elisabeth Robinson, Edwina Brown, Michael Robinson, and Patricia Thomas; as well as, in the memories of her grandchildren, great grandchildren, cousins, and dear friends. Ernestine, you are certainly irreplaceable and will be missed, as we bid you a fond farewell.
