

Estelle T. Cohen

September 13, 1935 - February 17, 2020

Estelle Taylor Cohen 84 of Hamden, CT went home to be with the Lord on February 17, 2020. She was born on September 13, 1935 in Jamestown, South Carolina to the late Carrie Taylor Batts. Estelle grew up, under the care of her grandparents Harry and Annie Shepard –Taylor, and was educated in Jamestown. Estelle moved to New Haven CT where she met and married the love of her life, Fred Cohen; and from their 51 year union they were blessed with 3 children, Sharon, Frederic and LaShawn Cohen.

Estelle, never afraid of hard work, held several jobs throughout her lifetime. She worked for several years at US Repeating Arms; and finally retiring after 15 years of employment from Circuit Wise Inc. of North Haven, in 2000.

Estelle loved gardening and planting anything that she could make grow, she had a true “green thumb”. She enjoyed relaxing, traveling and cooking for her family; she would revise any recipe to fit your restrictions or desires. She was a fan of Uconn Basketball, the Boston RedSox and any team her grandson Trevonn played for.

Estelle was a longtime member of Immanuel Missionary Baptist Church in New Haven, and would be upset anytime she couldn't make a service.

Estelle leaves to cherish her memories her husband Fred Cohen, Son

Frederic Cohen and daughters Sharon and LaShawn Cohen all of Hamden. Grandchildren LaQuaya Cohen-Sunmonu of Georgia. Levi Brock of New Haven and Trevonn Cohen of Hamden, 2 Great Grandchildren, a brother Irving Batts of Florida, a special God Daughter Venita Brooks-Sims of New Haven, her beloved Rottweiler Cody along with a host of relatives and friends.

Estelle was predeceased by her mother Carrie Taylor Batts, Step-Father Ernest Batts and Brother Richard Batts.

“ Aunt Estelle was one of the sweetest people I have ever known, quiet and soft-spoken and always had a smile and something good to say! May God continue to bless your soul!

I pray that God wraps his blanket of comfort upon my Uncle Fred, Sharon, Fred, and LeShaun at this time! God bless you!
