

Esther L. Smith

January 8, 1928 - April 21, 2016

Esther Louise Smith departed this life on April 21, 2016 with her family by her side. Born in New Haven, CT to the late Avon and Frances (Skinner) Brown. She was educated in the New Haven Public Schools. Esther was married for 52 years to the late George Smith. From this Union were born three sons and two daughters. Her vocation was a seamstress, but her true calling was that of a nurturer, not only to her family but to all others drawn to her kindred spirit. A loving woman whose quick wit would lead to a good laugh and a joyous feeling just to be in her presence. Having accepted God early in her life, the love for him and her faith have always been a sustainable constant. God showed her favor as he allowed her to wear a badge of courage as a sixteen year cancer survivor. She was affectionately known to all as Granny. Esther leaves to cherish her memories daughters Patricia Smith-Davis and Sandra Smith, one son Robert Smith; two brothers Raymond Brown and Kahlil Mahdi. She was predeceased in death by two sons James and George, two brothers Linson and Charles, three sisters Mary, Harriet and Frances Brown. Two Grandchildren Tanya and Starr Smith.
