

Ethel Peters

October 13, 1950 - September 23, 2020

Ethel Yvonne Dukes Peters passed away at her residence due to multiple illnesses on September 23, 2020. Ethel was the only daughter of Cecil Dukes and Mildred Nelson (both deceased). She was born in Kingstree, S.C on October 13, 1950. Ethel was a longtime member of Immanuel Baptist Church, where she engaged in missionary work for various outreach programs and committees. Some of the programs included: Sister of Hager, Annual Harvest Bazaar, and the Food Pantry. She was also a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars Women's Auxiliary. Ethel served as the President of MAKRLA, Inc. provided scholarships to New Haven Public School Students attending college, sponsored annual toy drives and sponsored an actual coat giveaway.

Ethel was also the owner of a daycare center which she operated from her residence in South Carolina for over 15 years. She leaves behind three children: Timothy Peters, LaShell (Peters) Davis and Sheldon Dukes. Ethel had two siblings who are both deceased: Cecil Dukes, Jr. and Leroy Dukes. She has 10 grandchildren Timothy, Tiffany, Sheldon Jr., Te'Nea, Timothy Jr., Tyler, Nyasia, Aria, Derrick Jr. and Mikayla. She also leaves behind six great grandchildren: KeyAsia, Kamryn, Kaliyah, Giovanni, Jelani, and Malachi. In honor of Ethel's commitment to the community and education, Ethel Y. Peters Community of One HBCU Scholarship Fund has been established to provide an annual scholarship to one deserving student from both New Haven and West Haven, CT School Districts to assist them with funds towards their respective HBCU of choice.
