

Eulalee Brown-Crosbie

January 28, 1943 - February 4, 2020

EulaLee Crosbie, 77 of New Haven, CT entered into eternal rest on February 4, 2020 at Yale New Haven Hospital. Mrs. Crosbie was born January 28, 1943 in Halse Hall District Clarendon Jamaica to the late Joseph Brown and Lillian Palmer. known to many as “Brownie” Mrs. Crosbie relocated to New Haven in 1990 where she resided for the past 30 years. She was employed by Lifetime Care at Home as a caregiver which she enjoyed for many years. She loved cooking, crocheting, baking, shopping or reading her bible these were just some of the hobbies she enjoyed in her downtime. Mrs. Crosbie will be remembered for her playful ways and giving hands, no matter the need you would find brownie giving to others from her heart with a smile. Her love for God was remarkable and her faith remained unbreakable. She leaves to cherish her memory two sons Errol Davis of New York, Devon Morris of CT, one daughter Josette Morris of CT, one brother Timothy Bartley of Jamaica, ten grandchildren, 2 nephews, 3 nieces, and a host of relatives and friends that will miss her dearly.

EulaLee was predeceased by one sister Sophia Brown.
