“ To Say Good-Bye

*We did not wish to say good-bye,
And still, we know it's best
That God has called you to Himself
To your eternal rest.
We'll miss your smile, those happy times;
And laughter that we shared,
But know the joy that you have now
Just cannot be compared.
It was so hard to see your pain,
But we thank God above
That you had placed your faith in Him,
And trusted in His love.
We did not wish to say good-bye,
But look, one day, to see
That Great Reunion – with you there!
For all eternity!*

To Dearvon, may the words of this poem comfort your mind, heart and spirit.

“ To The Smith Family,

who is part of my family as well. So sorry for your loss. Your mom will definitely be missed. So many beautiful memories of your mom, and the entire family. We all lived across the street from one another, and went to the same church. May God bless you during this time, and may all of the beautiful memories of your mom forever linger in your hearts. She was a fighter to the end. RIP.

“ I will miss seeing Eunice when I come in town. I had a special name that I would call her that would make her ask "why do you call me that" and she would laugh. No more pain, no more working so hard to get around just walking around heaven and shouting. Rest in peace my love. Always Barbara Bell and Tynisia

“ I Have so many wonderful memories of my mom, she was so feisty, never sugar-coated anything 🙄 I will surely miss her, she was my twin. As I laid in her bed last night I found all of her hidden snacks and eating them; that's my mamma ❤️❤️
