“ Mother Belton I will truly miss you. You were a part of my family and I will always be thankful to God for you because you faithfully served by my grandmother's side after she opened Miracle Temple. You were a faithful member until you went home to the Father and I will forever be grateful to have been a part of your history. Kiss my Nana, Pastor Morrison for me and y'all go on ahead and have you a time.

“ My deepest condolences to Evelyn's family. I first met her when I worked at the New Haven Housing Authority, and we became good friends. She had a heart as big as the world, and I know she will be missed by everyone she met. Her words "Stay encouraged" will always be with me. Rest in Peace, dearest Evelyn.
