“ *Family --
May God be your strength now and days to come.
Oh, how I miss Cootney. I met Cootney when she first came to New Haven., 54 years ago. My last words to Cootney were "I love you"*

Blessings ❤️

“ I remeber Cooney from when i was a teenager. Myself and a bunch of classmates played softball for Shekinah Glory Church and she was the team mom cheering us on at game time and very tough at our practices. God gained another angel for his staff and i personally will miss her very much. Rest Easy in the arms of God Cooney!!

“ It’s a tough moment in our lives but you’ve given much of yours strengthening us for these very moments; rekindling our relationship with God. You’ve given more in your time of struggles than anyone I know. You’ve earned your crown auntie, you’ve earned it.

*With Everlasting Love,
Your Nephew
(Willie)*
